RED ROUGH SKIN.
If there is anything a woman is proud of or rather delights in it's a smooth, clear, blemishless skin. Sometimes this is a little hard to produce, but a great many of our women customers are speaking words of praise for
Cream Of ROSE AND ALMOND
They are safe in doing this, as it is an ideal skin food. For chaps, cracks, rough skin or any irritation of the skin it is very effective. You will find it just what you've been loooking for.

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN SWORN IN.

Reports Filed and Adopted—Chief of Police and His Assistants Complimented.

The retiring Board of Aldermen met last night at 8 o'clock and held a short session, transacting little business further than receiving reports.

The registrar and pollholders for the city election filed their report, which was adopted.

Through its chairman, Mr. J. M. Walker, the purchasing committee reported that the purchases for the past year were principally supplies and other necessary expenses incident to the street force. The smallpox purchases were made by the Mayor and Chief of Police, and an inspection of the bills satisfied the committee that they were correct. The purchasing department has been economically managed, for the best interests of the city.

Alderman H. J. Elam, chairman of the police committee, submitted the following report, which was received and adopted:

"We find that there have been issued during the year 595 warrants. Of these, 242 were fined, 163 bound over to court, 143 dismissed, 33 sent to county roads, and 14 are yet in the hands of the officers to be served.

"We find the amount of fines collected to be $1,097.40; court cost, $191.00, with 59 warrants on hand to send to the Superior Court, from which at the very lowest estimate, the city will realize at least $75.00, making a total of $1,363.40 to be collected and due the city.

"Notwithstanding the fact that our calaboose and jail were closed for three and a half months during the year, on account of smallpox, the fines collected show an increase of about 80 per cent. over last year.

"We find that 195 dog checks were sold, being about three times the amount for any previous year.

"We find that each police officer has made a full settlement with the city.

"It is a noteworthy fact that the number of warrants issued and served is much in excess of any previous year, but they have been looked after very carefully by our vigilant and efficient chief and his assistants, with the result above named.

"We take pleasure in stating that everything has moved along very smoothly in the police department, with no apparent friction. There has not been a single complaint against any officer filed with your committee during the year. This is a very high complimint to our efficient chief of police and his vigilant assistants, and one which we think is well deserved.

"Respectfully submitted,
"H. J. ELAM,
Chairman Police Committee"

After the retiring board adjourned, the new board was in session for a short while.

Justice J. R. Pearce administered the oath to Mayor Taylor, who swore in the newly elected aldermen, all of whom were present.

Aldermrn J. Y. Joyner moved that ex-Alderman J. M. Walker be made an honorary and advisory member of the building committee. The motion was unanimously adopted. Mr. Walker was chairman of the building committee of the old board and handled the business with rare business ability and judgment.

The matter of electing a tax collector and police officers was deferred until the next meeting, which will be held Friday night. At that time two members of the Board of Education are also to be elected.

The special committee having in charge the water works matter is working on its report, which may be made at the next meeting. As soon as the report is submitted the matter will be taken up and pushed vigorously.

Train Rocked.

As the southbound local train was coming into town this morning some villain threw a small stone through one of the car windows just as the train was passing the pond at Proximity. The stone passed through the car and broke the glass in the window on the opposite side, but luckily no one was injured.

When passing the fireman saw a white man standing on an embankment, and it may be that he threw the stone. No one else was seen in the vicinity.

This thing of rocking trains is getting to be quite too frequent, and it is hoped that some of the miscreants can be caught and made an example of. Only a few nights ago an engineer was struck by a rock thrown from a point near the Judge Dick place.

Better lay aside your heavy old winter shoes now and let us fit you up with something lighter for the warm season. We have an assortment of men's shoes from $2.25 to $3.50 in price from which we are very sure we can please your taste and fit your feet. The line embraces both russet and black leathers, in vici kid, light weight box calf, velvet calf, Russia calf and old fashioned plain calf skin in medium and light weights. We think we have a better stock of men's shoes to show you than ever before, and will be glad to show them to you, whether you are ready to buy or not.
THACKER & BROCKMANN.

Shoe bargains will be plentiful at our store next Friday, bargain day. J. M. Hendrix & Co. m9-3t

CHARLOTTE'S CELEBRATION.

Hotel Room Already Proved Inadequate—A Horse Ground up.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

Charlotte, May 9—People are beginning to wonder what Charlotte will do with the crowds that come here during Gala week. A hotel man says he received 200 applications last Sunday for accommodation during the May celebration. Two of the leading hotels announce that they will go on the first come, first served plan, and will not make reservations for any body unless in special cases.

The builders of the city have experienced another brick famine. The work on the new graded school building has been halted a second time, in fact the first brick famine was never really over, only a temporary relief coming.

The accident at the C. C. &. A. trestle in the western part of the city last night was the most sickening sight to behold today. One of the horses killed was literally ground to pieces and the trestle for 20 feet is covered with horse flesh. The engine was pushing cars in front of it which possibly is one cause of the accident.

Mittledorfer, of Richmond, the decorator, will have charge of most of the decorations for the 20th. The Elks will place their temple in his hands for all of the exterior decorations. The committee on decorations meets to perfect plans for the 20th.

A TREAT IN STORE.

Some Fine Talent in Tomorrow Night's Entertainment.

A treat is in store for those who attend the entertainment to be given tomorrow evening at the Academy of Music. A most attractive programme will be rendered by some of our city's best talent. Miss Grace Clary, whose fine voice it is always a pleasure to hear, and Hon. Z. V. Taylor and Mr. J. Wesley White, who never fail to charm their audiences, will sing. Mrs. Nellie H. Miller and Miss Annie Pugh, who are well known as accomplished pianists, will render solos.

The recitations of Mrs. J. A. De Carr will be of a high histrionic order. The Richmond papers were lavish in their praise whenever she appeared. Rev. T. J. Hogarty, D. D., will give a short address on Shakespeare, the poet of nature, who holds up to his readers a faithful mirror of manners and life. There will be other features not less entertaining. Admission, 25 cents. Curtain raised at 8:15 p. m.

Sarcasm From the Pulpit.

"Bruddren and sistahs," sternly said good old Parson Woolimon after the collection had been taken up upon a recent Sabbath morning, "before the hat was done parsed I expounded the request dat de congregation contribute accawdin to deir means, and I sho expectorated dat yo' all would chip in magnanimously. But now, upon examinin de collection, I finds dat de concocted amount contributed by de whole posse ob yo' am only the significant and pusillanimous sum of sixty-free cents. And at dis junction dar ain't no 'casion for yo' all to look at Brudder Slewfoot, what done circumambulated de hat around, in no such auspicious manner, for, in de fust place, Brudder Slewfoot ain't dat kind of a man, and, in the second place, I done watched him like a hawk all de time muhself. No, sixty-free cents was all dat was flung in, and I dess wants to say dat, in my humble opinion, instead ob contributin accawdin to yo' means, yo' all contributed accawdin to yo' meanness. De choir will now favor us wid deir reg'lar melodiousness."

A Twelve Hour Dinner.

They dined well, if not wisely, in the old days described by Sir Algernon West in his "Recollections." He says:

"Thanks to the introduction of smoking after dinner, wine drinking is now over. What it was in old days appears most incredible. The late Lord Clanwilliam told me of one occasion when he had dined at a friend's villa near Putney. The dinner was extraordinarily late for those days—at 8 o'clock.

"When they at last rose from the table and went up to their rooms, Lord Clanwilliam flung open his window and saw the haymakers coming into the field.

"'I wonder,' he thought, 'what hour they begin work.' And on consulting his watch he found it was 8:30—the haymakers were returning to work from their breakfast."—New York World.

DR. SMITH MAKES A STATEMENT

Says that the Biographies of Men Prove This to Have in Some Instances Been the Case.

The Telegram applied to Dr. E. W. Smith for a fuller statement of his views as to the possibility of a man's being a sincere Christian, who at the same time denied the divinity of Christ. The editor had heard the subject discussed in various quarters and felt that a fuller presentation of Dr. Smith's meaning might remove misconceptions as well as be of general interest.

To our inquiries Dr. Smith replied substantially as follows:

"It is needless for me to say that I believe in the divinity of Christ as firmly as in the existence of God. There are few truths which I preach with greater frequency and emphasis than the supreme divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ.

"2. I regard this doctrine as absolutely essential and fundamental to the Christian system and plan of salvation.

"3. But here we are met by a problem. There have been some men who denied the divinity of Christ, who yet gave unmistakable evidence in their lives of being truly regenerate. They were in apparently fatal error as to Christ's nature, but they did love and follow Christ. Their biographies prove this. It must be accepted as a fact, however strange the phenomenon.

"My own explanation is that such persons are Christians only at the expense of reason and logic. Logically it would not be possible for them to be Christians, for the denial of Christ's Divinity if carried to its necessary conclusions would make Christ a dupe or an impostor, and utterly invalidate the atonement But they are not logical. Their hearts are better than their heads. They are incorrect interpreters and worse reasoners. They do not accept or even realize the logical results of their errors, results that, if reasoned and embraced, would be fatal to any saving faith in or following of Christ. It was the saying of one eminent theologian in religious matters we should be careful of imputing to men all the logical consequences of their beliefs, because most men are illogical. It is in this direction, I believe, that we must seek the explanation of that phenomenon occasionally met with in history and real life, viz: the union of sincere piety with apparently fatal doctrinal error.

"4. It is useless to add that whoever takes example or encouragement from such persons does so at the peril of his soul."

The Nature of Ether.

If any reader is disposed to object to the assumption of a medium behaving in such very different ways with regard to motions of different speeds, it may assist in convincing him that the objection is not a valid one to direct his attention to the similar behavior of such a familiar substance as pitch. In moderately cold weather this material has all the appearance of a solid and will resist a blow or momentary heavy pressure. If, however, a denser body than the pitch, such as a bullet, for example, be laid upon its surface, it will gradually sink until it rests upon whatever is supporting the pitch. If, on the other hand, the pitch is placed upon a less dense body, such as cork, the latter will float up through it in the course of time. The pitch, therefore, exposes great resistance to rapid motion, but the smallest pressure causes it to give way if sufficient time is allowed.—Knowledge.

Mr. Bickerley's Method.

"I have here a complete and concise history of our war in the"—

"Exactly, exactly," hurriedly interrupted Mr. Bickerley. "Just what I have been looking for. What a beautiful edition! By the way, don't forget to go around and see my wife. She wishes one, you know. Never mind the price. Here's $10, and you can keep the change."

The book agent had fallen helpless against the desk. The surprise was too much.

"Here, boy!" called Mr. Bickerley. "Help me carry this fellow out. That's the way to fix 'em."—Indianapolis Sun.

The Polite Professor.

The palm for absentmindedness should be accorded to a learned German professor. One day he noticed his wife placing a bunch of flowers on his desk. "What do they mean?" he asked.

"Why," she exclaimed, "don't you know that this is the anniversary of your marriage?"

"Ah, indeed, is it?" said the professor politely. "Kindly let me know when yours comes around, and I will return your attention in kind."—Collier's Weekly.

Upsetting Arithmetical Tradition.

Jack—How did you come out on that bulldog pup you bought?

Dick—Lost over 100 per cent on the transaction.

Jack—Oh, I guess not! A hundred per cent is all you can possibly lose.

Dick—Think so, do you? Well, I paid $10 for the pup, and then I had to give a boy $1 to take him out and drown him. If that isn't 110 per cent loss, I'd like to know what you call it. —New York Sun.

The Best and Most Honey.

The finest honey in this country is gathered from hives where white clover and basswood are accessible. In quantity, however, it falls behind that made from the goldenrod and buckwheat blossom. From New York, Pennsylvania and Vermont comes the most of the comb honey and from Arizona and California the largest amount of extracted or liquid honey.

Gratitude is a nice touch of beauty added last of all to the countenance, giving a classic beauty, an angelic loveliness to the character.

BOERS RETREATING.

A Rupture Between Transvaalers and Free Staters Is on.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Smaldeel, May 9.—It is reported that the Federals are quitting Zand river. It is variously stated that they are retreating toward the Vaal and are taking up a position at Boshand, south of Kroonstadt. Large numbers of Boers have come in and delivered Mausers and horses to the British. They affirm that there is a bitter quarrel between the Free Staters and Transvaalers, which will likely end in a speedy surrender of the former. French has arrived here.

The British have been successful at all points recently. Hunter has passed fourteen streams after a fight in which twenty Boers, including two commanders, were killed. At the Vet river the Gordon Highlanders put a large commando to flight. The Eighth Hussars killed over seventy retreating Boers.

FIRE AND WRECK.

Forest Fires Raging in Pennsylvania. A Train Wrecked.

By Wire to the Telegram

Bradford, Pa., May 9.—As a result of the forest fires which have been raging in this section since Monday, the villages of Corbett, Bingham, Dubois, Newton and Ormsby are destroyed. It is reported that six persons were burned at Corbett and three at Dubois.

A train was fitted with appliances for fighting fire and sent to the region. When the flames were reached the smoke was so intense that the trainmen were compelled to seek refuge in open fields.

A passenger train crashed into the deserted train and both engines were wrecked and several cars injured. The passengers were thrown violently from their seats and several were seriously injured.

One of the lady passengers, a Mrs. Parks, who escaped uninjured, ran all the way to Newton for help. A relief train has been sent.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 9 1900.

His Corpulency sized up other cases than Pearson's when he said that the Duke's real trouble was a lack of votes.

Without wishing any hard luck to anybody, we should like to see Candidate Adams run up against Candidate Aycock.

We commend to the Charlotte Observer as a fine example of optimism, the joy of the people of Mafeking as they celebrated the 200th day of their seige, and cheerfully sat down to their dinner of horse flesh.

A conference for the discussion of the race problem assembled in Montgomery, Ala., yesterday, in which a number of distinguished men will take part. It would be well if the politicians could be shut out, and a sincere, thoughtful discussion, by men who think and feel, could be indulged in. Many well intentioned individuals speak and think of the "race problem" as one concerned only with the suffrage, while in reality that is but the surface of the subject.

Charlotte may not get her fingers into every dish that is being passed, but it is certain that she doesn't mind standing right up to the table and saying "I'll thank you to pass me" whatever she happens to want, which is usually what she sees. Some other towns of North Carolina might learn from her some valuable receipts against bashfulness. This is called to mind by the fact that Senator Morgan of Alabama, and the Honorable Wu Ting Fang, Chinese minister at Washington, have just sent their deep regrets at being unable to attend a meeting of the Cotton Spinner's Association in that town.

The telegraphers' strike against the Southern Railroad, which was inaugurated on April 12th, was formally declared off by President Powell in Atlanta yesterday. This strike had been dwindling down for some time and its ineffectiveness has long been apparent, the prevalent opinion being, as expressed by one of the striking men in Greensboro, that it would quietly die out as the men sought and found positions elsewhere. This strike appeared to us at first to be the half-cocked explosion of its leaders. We were sorry for the men who were called out, because it seemed the ill advised work of leaders who were wholly unprepared to take care of the interests of the men who followed their lead. Had the strike been fully prepared for, the railroad would have treated it with respect, and some equitable agreement could have been reached which would have been satisfactory to both sides, and not have sacrificed innocent men.

Today, the regular, out-for-anything branch of populism, lead by chisel-face Butler, is in session in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, while the middle of the road section, who operate merely for the sake of the pleasure to be derived from making endless speeches, is endangering the roofs of Cincinnati. The first section will nominate Bryan, while the other has nothing whatever to do except to allow all its members a chance to speak all they want to, they having already met and nominated Wharton Barker for president. In this connection one is tempted to moralize on "how are the mighty fallen." It used to be that when Butler's section met we were all afraid that he might put up a dose for us all to swallow. When the highway splitters met, the weather man wrote, "Look out for wind storms." Now, nobody pays much attention to either.

Luncheon at the Banner Warehouse.

The ladies of West Market Street Church Aid Society will serve their luncheon tomorrow at the Banner Warehouses from 12 o'clock noon, and continuing through the afternoon and evening. They will furnish a good luncheon for 25 cents and will have on sale strawberry cream, with other varieties of cream and ices, at reasonable prices.

AN ANCIENT BELIEF.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of siatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the affliction is demoniac enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

Lawton's Rubber Bathtub.

General Lawton made it a habit of his life to take a cold water bath every morning before breakfast, and while campaigning he carried with him a rubber tub. It made no difference where he was, he always ordered the tubful of cold water to his quarters every morning.

In following the Apaches he reached a mountain. He knew that the Indians had fled there, and before pursuing them farther he left his rubber tub and other tent equipments at the base of the mountains in charge of an old and faithful sergeant to guard carefully until he returned. It was an old trick with that tribe of Indians when being pursued to circle around and return to the exact point whence they started.

The general left the tub and started out after the Indians. They circled around, covering a wide territory, and beat General Lawton back to the base of the mountain. When he got there, he found that the old sergeant and his six men had been killed and that his tub had been carried off by the Indians. The Apaches evidently learned how highly the general prized the rubber tub, for they placed great store by it after they had captured it and guarded it as closely as they did their own lives.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Memories of a Waltz.

"Did you ever try to dance with a foreigner?" asked a Louisville gentleman who had been traveling abroad. "I did once," he continued, "and that experience was more than enough for me. It happened at a hall at Mustapha, at the Hotel St. Georges. I asked an Austrian countess to waltz, and when we started I supposed we would dance in the leisurely American fashion. The countess had a different idea in her head. She preferred to whirl madly like a dervish on a space that could be covered with a parasol, and on account of her superior strength I clung to her, and we began to spin.

"Finally, when it seemed to me that we were performing our antics on the ceiling with our heads hanging down, I could stand it no longer and, gasping for breath, suggested that we sit down. I saw two chairs galloping around the room and prepared to catch them on the next lap. We steered for them, I clinging helplessly to the athletic lady, and then we sank down. I sat dazed and almost insensible until I was aroused by the countess saying:

"'Excuse me, but we are sitting on the same chair.'"—Detroit Free Press.

Our First Postal Rates.

Not exceeding 30 miles, 6 cents.

Over 30 and not exceeding 60 miles, 8 cents.

Over 60 and not exceeding 100 miles, 10 cents.

Over 100 and not exceeding 150 miles, 12½ cents.

Over 150 and not exceeding 200 miles, 15 cents.

Over 200 and not exceeding 250 miles, 17 cents.

Over 250 and not exceeding 350 miles, 20 cents.

Over 350 and not exceeding 450 miles, 22 cents.

Over 450 miles, 25 cents.

It would seem that postmasters of that day must have been greatly perplexed in adjusting the rates on each letter under such a diversified schedule as the above. The weight limit was one ounce (single), but a single letter was a single sheet, two sheets double, three sheets triple, four sheets a quadruple letter, even if the whole four did not exceed an ounce.

A Shock For Carlyle.

Thackeray once told Sir John Millais this amusing story of Carlyle:

He had spent a day in the reading room of the British museum and had given a great deal of trouble to one of the officials, sending him up and down ladders in search of books to satisfy his literary tastes, and on leaving the room he had gone up to the man and told him that it might be some satisfaction to him to know that he had obliged Thomas Carlyle. The official hesitatingly answered him, with a bland smile and the usual washing of hands in the air, that the gentleman had the advantage of him, but that probably they might have met at some mutual friend's house. He had never heard of Thomas Carlyle.

Water.

The body needs internal as well as external baths to keep it healthy. To give the body an internal bath drink plenty of water. Two quarts should be taken each day, beginning with a glass just after rising and ending with a glass just before retiring. If you are inclined to stoutness, do not drink during meals or within a half hour before or after them. If your complexion is bad, nothing is more conducive to a cure than drinking water either hot or cold, but preferably the latter.—New York Press.

Kingsley's Way.

I go at what I am about as if there were nothing else in the world for the time being. That's the secret of all hardworking men, but most of them can't carry it into their amusements. Luckily for me, I can stop from all work at short notice and turn head over heels in the sight of all creation and say, "I won't be good or bad or wise or anything till 2 o'clock tomorrow."—Charles Kingsley.

Man can run about ten miles an hour and jump about 23 feet at his best. The horse can trot a mile in two minutes and gallop one in one, while the greyhound, hare and ostrich are all faster even than this.

The sword blades forged at Toledo by the Saracens could be coiled up like a clock spring and would resume perfect straightness as soon as released.

Two Heads Cut Off.

Linch Jackson and his son were killed yesterday morning on the Southern Railway near Asheville. They were lying on the track and were probably drunk. Their heads were cut off and their bodies mangled. Both were blacksmiths. The coroner's jury adjourned till today.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

THE CLEVER SCHEME THAT WAS WORKED BY ONE CROOK.

He Wanted a Certain Book, and He Got It, Thanks to a Benevolent Lady, and Its Title Proved to Be Peculiarly Appropriate.

"The recent escape from the parish prison," said a secondhand bookseller on the old side who has almost as many reminiscences as he has volumes, "reminds me of a very curious case of jail delivery in which I was an accessory before the fact. I was never arrested for it, but don't object to telling you the story.

"One day in the summer of 1895 a good looking, well dressed man strolled into the shop and said he wanted to get something that would interest his old mother, whom he described as very religious and fond of antique books.

"We picked out a dozen or so together, Fox's 'Book of Martyrs,' 'Pilgrim's Progress,' Mather's 'Sermons of Occasion,' Pusey's 'Daniel the Prophet' and among others a quaint, massively bound volume called 'The Friend In Affliction.' They were all interesting old copies, but my caller told me he would like to submit them to his mother before closing the purchase and offered to leave a $50 bill as security.

"That was agreeable to me, and he carried away the lot. Next day he returned and brought back three or four of the books, among them 'The Friend In Affliction,' which he remarked laughingly had given his mother the blues. The others he paid for, and I have never seen him again from that day to this.

"Almost a week after his visit, however, a thin, prim, precise, elderly lady, a typical spinster from head to toe, came in one afternoon and began looking over the shelves. Presently she ran across the same old 'Friend In Affliction' that had fared so badly in the other trade, and, much to my gratification, she purchased it on the spot. It was exactly the thing, she said, to give consolation to an unfortunate person of her acquaintance who was then in great trouble. I was glad to get rid of the book and let her have it for a couple of dollars.

"Fully a month afterward I was amazed to receive a visit from a big, burly man, who introduced himself as a detective, produced 'The Friend In Affliction' from a valise and asked me what I knew about it.

"The book had suffered since I saw it last. One of its thick covers was ripped open, and sticking inside was a small steel file. The story the detective told me was certainly extraordinary.

"It seems that a noted northern crook had been in jail in a small town up the country on a charge of bank burglary and being a very smooth rascal had enlisted the sympathy of a philanthropic old lady of the place who had a fad for prison reform. He persuaded her that he had thoroughly repented, and she used to visit him regularly and bring him tracts and delicacies.

"Among other things he told her that while broke in New Orleans he had sold all of his belongings, including a keepsake from his mother—a volume called 'The Friend In Affliction.' He gave her my address as the place where he had left the precious relic and worked on her feelings to such an extent that she promised to secure the book for him the first time she visited the city.

"How she discovered and purchased it you already know. On her return she carried it straight to the jail, and while ordinarily all gifts for prisoners were closely examined, this lady's high character made such precaution seem unnecessary and she passed in the volume without question.

"A few days later the turnkey found a barred window neatly sawed and the bird flown. He also found 'The Friend In Affliction' lying on the floor, and in one of the massive covers were several saws and the file I have mentioned. Of course the philanthropic old lady was immediately questioned, and her hysterical replies led to the visit of the detective, but nothing ever came of the quest. The fugitive is supposed to have left on an outbound steamer—at any rate he was never caught.

"What about my first customer, did you ask? Oh, he was undoubtedly the pal who planted the saws."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

One or the Other.

"Doctor, what ails my daughter?"

"Before I answer that question let me ask if you have reason to think she has had a love disappointment of any kind?"

"I know she has not."

"Then, madam, your daughter has the grip."—Chicago Tribune.

A PLEASURE AND A DUTY.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neigbors to tell about the wonderful cure affected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain' Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy. A few doses of it affected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSOM, VA., Dec. 31.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

WISHING

It may be true of virtue that "But to wish more virtue is to gain," but it is not true that wishing for health brings us a step nearer the realization of our wish. Health must be sought and striven for. There are more than half a million people who have found health, each in the same way, and by the same means. That way and means are open to you. If you are suffering with obstinate, lingering cough, bleeding of the lungs, bronchitis, emaciation, weakness, a condition which if neglected or unskilfully treated, leads to consumption, begin at once the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It never fails to help. It perfectly heals ninety-eight out of every hundred who give it a fair and faithful trial.

Sick persons are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter absolutely free of all fee or charge. Every letter is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential, and all answers are sent in plain envelopes, bearing no printing upon them. The experience of Dr. Pierce often enables him to suggest auxiliary treatment specially adapted to the individual case. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"About one year ago I began to be troubled with a dry, hacking cough, and a hurting through my breast so that I could hardly go about or do my house work for myself and husband," writes Mrs. Alice Holton, of St. Albans, Kanawha Co., W. Va. "I let my trouble go on until about eight months ago I got one of Dr. R. V. Pierce's little pamphlets. I learned of a great remedy for such diseases, and I wrote to the World's Dispensary Medical Association in a short time after reading the little book. They soon gave an answer and advised me what to do. I followed their advice and I soon found relief by the use of Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I have used three bottles of it and now feel like a new person."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do not become a necessity to the system they have relieved of accumulations and obstructions.

A Qualified Decision.

"In the early days of Cœur d'Alene," said an old miner, "I was working with my partners on a claim when we were suddenly startled by pistol shots and, looking up, discovered a man lying prostrate on an adjoining claim, while his assailant was trying to escape by legging it to the best of his ability. Without stopping to pick up the injured man we gave hot chase to the one trying to escape, whom we finally overhauled, captured and haled before a justice of the peace at Mission, Ida., the nearby town.

"There, as I remember it, it developed that it was an attempt at claim jumping and that the man who had done the shooting was the would be jumper. The evidence was all against him, and word came that the man who had been shot lay all but within the portals of death, the physician giving it as his opinion that he could last only a few hours longer, and thereupon the famed justice of the peace rendered his decision.

"'I find you guilty of murder in the first degree,' said he severely as he turned toward the prisoner at the bar —'that is, provided the victim dies,' and so that decision stands to this day."

A Newspaper Wonder.

When you open up your newspaper, it may cause you to feel some wonder if you know that in all probability yours are the first hands that have ever touched its inside pages. The reason for this is that the paper is made from wood pulp. The woodman cuts down a spruce tree. It is hauled to the mill. There machinery strips off the bark, reduces the wood to pulp and makes it into paper.

At every turn cranes, derricks, chains, cogs, rollers, steel teeth and other mechanical contrivances keep the material out of human hands. The immense rolls are wound by machines, loaded into car and wagon by machinery, put into pressroom and on presses by other machinery and finally printed and folded without having been directly touched by any human hand.

This is a mechanical marvel of today which is no doubt duplicated in other branches of industry. It is very striking in the newspaper industry, which stands in the very front rank of mechanical perfection.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

No Use For Toes.

If shoes go on forever, why should not our toes grow together? We have no use for them. We can't manage them. About one man in 1,000 can pull on his interossei muscles and spread out his toes. In the remaining 999 these muscles are as dead as fiber. They haven't been used since the infant stuck his toes in his mouth and crooned a baby song without words. If we wore mittens all the time, the individual control of our fingers would be lost. We eat so much soft food that we have scarcely any need of teeth. Gums would answer every purpose, as mastication is performed by machinery before we begin a meal. There are over 200 distinct muscles in the human body, of which the best of us keep about 100 in prime condition by proper use.—New York Press.

Speeding the Parting Guest.

"Is that clock right?" he asked after it had struck 11.

"Why?" she answered.

"Because if it is I shall have plenty of time to catch the 11:30 car."

"I remember now," she said, "that the clock is about 20 minutes slow. If you hurry, you will just catch the car."

During the 20 minutes that he stood on the corner he arrived at the painful conclusion that she didn't really love him as he longed to be loved.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Hawaiian Pronunciations.

Hawaiians call their chief islands Hah-vwy-ee; we say Hah-wy-ee. Other proper ways of giving well known Hawaiian names are: O-ah-hu, Ho-nolulu, Mow-ee (Maui), Kow-aye (Kauai), Ne-e-how (Niihau), Hee-lo (Hilo), Lahy-na (Lahaina), Ko-hah-la (Kohala). Vowels are as in Italian and deserve much care. Hawaiians pay little attention to consonants. — Baltimore News.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for conghs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

The Irony of Fate.

Speaking of the queer flukes of luck in the goldfields of Alaska, a writer in Ainslee's Magazine says:

"Often after the 'pile' is made accident, disease or death steps in to prevent its legitimate enjoyment.

"One man dropped dead when at the weighing of the first clean up he found himself a rich man. There was something wrong with his heart. He had the physical strength to make the fight against bad food and water, to endure the back breaking toil of developing and working out and all the strain of the uncertainty that went before. The supreme moment of success was more than he could stand, and the use of the gold passed from him with its acquirement.

"A certain James Meade lay down with typhoid fever in an outlying camp just as he was starting for home with the accumulations of the year, and he and his bag of dust entered Dawson together on a litter. It took six men to bring him in—alternating four to carry and two to rest—and he paid each man $15 a day. Once in Dawson Meade seemed to grow better, and when his sailing day came he walked to the boat. He reached the wharf and fell dead as he was about to go aboard."

Improving Each Shining Hour.

"That little boy seems as busy as a bee."

"Yes; he has hives."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

MANY LIVES SAVED.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever an opportunity offers, hoping that it may be the means of saving other lives. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

When the Puss Gets Her Back Up.

It is not anger alone that makes cats arch their backs. Indeed, when two cats are preparing to fight they do not assume this attitude, but crouch low, just as they do when about to spring on their prey, the body being extended and the hair not in the least erect. But when, on meeting a dog suddenly, fear is combined with anger then the cat, standing at its full height, at once arches its back, with an instinctive effort to appear as formidable as possible.

Darwin compares it to the similar attitude of the lynx when attacked and to that of birds which ruffle their feathers and spread out their wings and tail when alarmed. It is noticeable that a cat will also arch its back when in an effectionate frame of mind, rubbing itself against its master's leg. At the same time it slightly raises its fur and holds its tail erect. Its whole attitude is just the reverse of that which it assumes when savage.

Darwin accounts for this in the following words: "Certain states of mind lead to certain habitual actions which are of no service. Now, when a directly opposite state of mind is induced, there is a strong and involuntary tendency to the performance of a movement of a directly opposite nature, though it may be of no service."

SPAIN'S GREATEST NEED

Mr. R. P. Olivia, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest blood and nerve remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50c. Sold by C.E. Holton druggist.

Easy.

"Excuse me," said the shabby looking young man. "But would you be so kind as to cash this check for me?"

"Why don't yew git somebody thet knows yew to cash it?" asked the old countryman, picking up his carpet sack from the curb.

"The people that know me won't do it," bitterly exclaimed the young man, turning away to hide a tear.

"Poor fellow!" sympathetically answered the farmer as he took out his wallet. "How much is it fer?"

The Toothbrush Plant.

One of the most curious plants in the world is what is called the toothbrush plant of Jamaica. It is a species of creeper and has nothing particularly striking about its appearance. By cutting pieces of it to a suitable length and fraying the ends the natives convert it into a toothbrush, and a tooth powder to accompany the use of the brush is also prepared by pulverizing the dead stems.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to moke you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRAH—DISEASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air, blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucuous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure ond so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Not Imitators !

White Delivery Wagons have been a distinguishing mark of the Greensboro Steam Laundry for a number of years. Our customers have learned to "look out for the white wagons."

Competitors have seen fit to imitate our wagons, therefore we deem it wise to make a change.

Our wagons are now in the shop. About May 1st they will come out green, our future color. In the mean time would respectfully request our friends and patrons to BEWARE of the white laundry wagons and see to it that the right driver gets the bundle. To avoid any possible confusion, in futurr our wagons will be lettered;

CATARRH CAN BE CURED BY

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

"DANGER IN THE EARTH AND AIR; DANGER EVERYWHERE."

In a leading hotel, in a great city, a famous and aged physician was conversing. Listening to his wise and sententious discourse, were a group of well dressed men, evidently lawyers, business men and commercial travelers.

My firm belief, is "that medical science is certain yet to show that all diseases without exception are caused by invisible germs which are living organisms. Here is the germ of that terrible disease diphtheria. Here is the bacillus of typhoid fever; and here is the still more dreadful bacillus of tubercle which causes that most destructive of all diseases, consumption. This of that very common and supposed incurable disease, catarrh."

"I wish, Doctor," said the traveling man, "that you would tell us about catarrh. I have had it for years, and I am thoroughly discouraged."

The Doctor answered. "Catarrh, like diphtheria, consumption, typhoid fever, and a host of other diseases, is the result of a microbe invading the blood and attacking specially the mucous membrane. This foul and most disgusting disease is especially prevalent in the United States and it is rare to meet one who is not, or has not been troubled more or less with it. How often is he or she obliged to remain at home from pleasant entertainments, deprive themselves of many intellectual treats, from fear of the disagreeable odor arising from catarrhal affections. In its worst phase, the patient becomes loathsome both to himself and his friends.

"I believe," continued this great physician, "that the true way to heal catarrh is to medicate the blood. This can be done only by powerful alteratives which act as blood purifiers."

Betsy A. Marett, of Manistee, Manistee Co., Mich., writes:

Dear Sirs:—For ten years I was a sufferer from general debility and chronic catarrh. My face was pale as death. I was weak and short of breath. I could hardly walk, I was so dizzy and had a ringing in my head all the time. My hands and feet were always cold. My appetite was very poor. On getting up in the morning, my head swam so I was often obliged to lie down again. I had awful pains in the small of my back. I had a continual feeling of tiredness. My muscular power was almost entirely gone, and I couldn't go half a dozen steps without stopping to rest, and often that much exercise caused me to have a pain in my side. It seemed as though the blood had left my veins. The doctors said my blood had all turned to water. I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I tried the best physicians in the state, but failed to get any relief. My husband got me a bottle of Johnston's Sarsaparilla. I took it, and then I bought another. When these had been used, I was somewhat improved in health. I continued its use, and felt I was growing stronger; my sleep was refreshing, and it seemed as if I could feel new blood moving through my veins. I kept on taking it, and now consider myself a well and rugged woman. I work all the time, and am happy. I am positive that the Sarsaparilla saved my life. The sick headaches I have had since childhood, have disappeared, and my catarrh has almost entirely left me. I cannot be too thankful for what Johnston's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I recommend all women who have sick headaches to use your Sarsaparilla.

CANCER IS NOT INCURABLE

Time was when Cancer was considered as incurable as leprosy. Physicians and friends could give little relief or encouragement to one afflicted with this terrible disease. Even now doctors know of no remedy for this fearful malady; while admitting it to be a blood disease, they still insist that there is no hope outside of a surgical operation, and advise you to have the Cancer cut out, but at the same time cannot assure you that it will not return. You may cut or draw out the sore, but another will come in its place, for the disease is in the blood—is deep-seated and destructive, and beyond the reach of the surgeon's knife or caustic, flesh-destroying plasters. The blood must be purified and strengthened, the system relieved of all poisonous, effete matter before the Cancer sore will heal.

S. S. S. is the only medicine that can overcome this powerful and contaminating poison and force it out of the blood. It builds up and invigorates the old, and supplies new, rich, life-giving blood. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy; no mineral can be found in it; the roots and herbs from which it is made contain powerful purifying properties that act directly upon the blood system and make a safe and permanent cure of Cancer. It has cured thousands, why not you?

Cancer is not always inherited; your family may be free from any taint, yet your blood may become so polluted that a severe and stubborn form of the disease may develop from a sore or ulcer on your tongue or other part of your body; a slight bruise or hurt, a little pimple on the eyelid, lip or nose, a small lump on the jaw or breast, a harmless looking wart or mole, and other causes so insignificant as to attract little or no attention. If you have an obstinate sore, don't rely upon salves or ointments to cure it—begin with S. S. S. at once; it will cleanse your blood and prevent the formation of cancerous cells.

Impure Blood Invites Disease.

Mrs. R. Shirer, La Plata, Mo., writes: "A small pimple came on my jaw about one inch below the ear on the left side of my face. At first it gave me no trouble, and I did not think it was anything serious until the jaw began to swell and became much inflamed. At the same time the sore began to spread and eat into the flesh, and gave me intense pain. I tried everything I could hear of, but nothing did me any good. I then began the use of S. S. S., and after taking several bottles the Cancer healed, and there is now no sign of the disease. This was two years ago, and I am still enjoying perfect health."

Send for our special book on Cancer; it contains much information that will interest you; it is free.

Write our physicians about your case, and for any advice or information wanted; they have made a life study of Cancer and all blood diseases. We make no charge whatever for this.

A Pretty Home Wedding Solemnized This Morning.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bingham N. Smith was the scene this morning of a pretty home wedding when their daughter, Miss Caralee Britt Smith, was married to Mr. Walter Scott Sergeant, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sergeant.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith, was witnessed by only the relatives and immediate friends of the families. The house was exquisitely decorated throughout. The front parlor, where the ceremony took place, was made beautiful by a profusion of lillies, tastefully arranged, and the rich glow cast by ruby lights.

The bride was attired in a swell gown of Castor broadcloth, and carried a lovely boquet of bride's roses. Miss Portie Adams, of Danville, maid of honor, wore a dainty creation of white organdy over white silk and carried carnations. Mr. J. Glen Smith, of Charlotte, acted as best man.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Latham, who, during the ceremony, rendery very sweetly, Lang's "Flower Song."

The presents were numerous and extremely handsome. Many congratulations by wire were received.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. W. R. Odell, of Concord; Mrs. George Sutherland, of Wilmington, and Mrs. J. W. Daniels, of Wilmington.

The young couple left at noon for an extended Northern tour, laden with the best wishes (to say nothing of the rice,) of a host of friends.

Unusual Effect of Prayer.

Philadelphia Record.

"This Christian Science business is a great thing," remarked the conversational conductor the other day as he helped an elderly female off the car. "Seein' that woman's false teeth reminded me of it." "Do you believe in it?" asked the passenger to whom the observation was addressed. "Do I believe in it? I can't help meself, me friend. I seen a demonstration of it with me own eyes!" "That so?" "Yes siree. For three nights the woman had a howling toothache, and tried Teeter's Toothache Tablets and Packham's Pain Paralyzer and Grimby's Gum Globules and everything else the drug store had, but her teeth were holler and kept achin'. Finally she thought she'd go in for Christian Science, so she got one of them prayin' doctors to come around to the house. They prayed together for two hours and the old woman went to sleep like a baby." "Christian Science treatment was all right, was it?" asked the passenger. "All right? I should say it was!" answered the conversational conductor. "Mebbe you won't believe it, but when she woke up in the mornin' and looked in the glass, every holler tooth in her head—seven of 'em in all—was filled with gold! Move up front, please."

The members of the congregation of Centenary Methodist church enjoyed a pleasant social in the Sunday school room last night. A large crowd was present.

It is stated that the capacity of the Oakdale Cotton Mills, at Jamestown, is soon to be increased. About $20,000 worth of new machinery will be added to the plant.

The front of W. F. Clegg & Bro.'s produce store is being remodelled. The plate glass windows have been lowered and the woodwork of the front will be repainted.

The lunch committee request the Daughters of the Confederacy to send provisions to the Academy of Music promptly by half-past nine o'clock Thursday morning.

There will be a regular communication of Greensboro Lodge, No. 76, A. F. & A. M. tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock for work in the first degree. Visitors will be cordially welcomed.

The Postoffice Department has given permission to the employees of the Greensboro postoffice to observe tomorrow as a holiday, instead of May 30th. Sunday hours will be observed.

Sheriff Lee, of Asheville, assisted by a sheriff and detective from Knoxville, yesterday morning searched Baxter Shemwell's house and Bingham Heights for Shemwell. He was not found. A new requisition had been issued by the Governor of Tennessee.

STATE DENTAL SOCIETY.

The Annual Meeting Convened Here Today.

The North Carolina State Dental Society convened in annual session in the Academy of Music this morning at 11 o'clock. In the absence of the president the society was called to order by Dr. E. J. Tucker, of Roxboro, first vice-president.

Dr. H. D. Harper, of Kinston, offered prayer for the guiding hand of the Almighty in the deliberations of the society.

Dr. J. S. Spurgeon, of Hillsboro, read the minutes of the last annual meeting.

The resignation of the president, Dr. A. C. Liverman, of Scotland Neck, was read. Dr. D. E. Everett, of Raleigh, stated that Dr. Liverman was forced to resign on account of ill health. The resignation was accepted with regrets.

The sitting president called Dr. Wright, of Wilson, to the chair, while he delivered his address, which contained much of interest.

The afternoon session of the society was called to order at 3 o'clock.

Prof. T. A. Smoot, of Greensboro Female College, delivered the address of welcome in his charming style.

Dr. N. G. Carroll, of Raleigh, responded in fitting words.

This promises to be one of the most interesting meetings of the society yet held. Several distinguished visitors from other States will be here.

Standard Oil Doomed in Canada.

Philadelphia Record.

A battle royal is on between the Standard Oil Company and the Canadian government. The Standard Company, pursuing the same line of policy which established its monopoly in the United States, bought up the Canadian refineries and afterwards made arrangements with the Canadian railroad companies to so advance the rates on oil manufactured elsewhere as to enable it to put up the price to Canadian consumers. In the United States this game was successfully worked. There was, in fact, a guilty complicity upon the part of some of the State legislatures. It is much to the credit of the Canadian authorities that they have published the preferential rates collusively established by the Canadian railroad companies. The Standard Company will have to find some new plan of levying special taxes upon Canadian consumers.

No Trouble at Lexington.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

I write to correct a mistake that appeared in your paper a few days ago, in a statement that Mr. Coxe referred to troubles that had taken place in the mills at Lexington. We have had no trouble here to amount to anything. Everything is running and has been all the time. Our employers have raised the wages of all help in both mills, of their own accord, and I don't think they regret it, as all are satisfied. The operatives are in better spirits than I have seen them in several years, and we do not wish that people should think that trouble exists here. W. A. BOWMAN,
Superintendent of Weaving.

AWFUL INDIA FAMINE.

There Are 93,000,000 Starving Human Beings.

Charlotte Observer.

War has slain its thousands but pestilence and famine are slaying their tens of thousands. The British casualties in the present war in South Africa have been as we remember, not quite 20,000. Hardly a quarter of these, however, have been killed, the greater part being losses from capture and wounds. The number of men killed in battle in the Union armies during the civil war was 67,058, the number dying from wounds 43,012, dying of disease 199,720, with deaths from accidents and other causes 40,154. Total deaths in the Union army 349,944. The number of Confederate soldiers who died of wounds or disease was 133,821. These latter are terrible losses and yet the number of famine stricken people in India today is 93,000,000 according to an Associated Press dispatch in Sunday's Observer, and with the mote strenuous efforts of the English government and the sweet charity of the world at large there is hope for relief for only 5,000,000 of the 93,000,000 starving human beings. This statement is colossally appalling and pathetic.

"Careers for Women."

The press of political and other matters caused us to omit yesterday a report of the admirable address on "Careers for women," delivered at the State Normal and Industrial College Saturday night by Dr. Claribel Cone, president and professor of pathology in the the Woman's Medical College of Baltimore. Dr. Cone charmed all who heard her, impressing them with her superior intelligence and common sense.

The address will be published in full in the next number of the State Normal Magazine.

A particularly graceful act of Dr. Cone was the donation of the entire proceeds of the lecture, amounting to about $50, to the fund for the erection of the student's building.

C. P. SELLARS,
Chief Marshal.

Notice.

Members of Steam Fire Engine Company, No. 1, are requested to meet at the court house square tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock sharp, to take part in the Memorial Day exercises. Come in uniform. It is urged that we have a full turn-out.

By request of the ladies and Chief Phipps.

JOHN LEWIS,
Foreman.

H. H. Rodgers of the Standard Oil Company, is said to have announced to the Danish government that 26 United States senators stood ready to vote as the company desired, and to have offered to lobby through the purchase of the Danish West Indies for ten per cent. of the proceeds. This is stated in an official report made to the Danish government by its special agent in the matter. The worst of the whole business is that Mr. Rodgers' alledged statement is probably correct.—Greenville Reflector.

The worst of the whole business is that people pay any attention to such foolish statements.

PROF. CLAXTON AT REIDSVILLE.

He Speaks and Outlines an Educational Policy for the State.

Reidsville Review.

At 12 o'clock, Prof. P. P. Claxton, professor of pedagogy at the State Normal College, addressed the large and cultured audience which had assembled. Prof. Claxton, who had carefully inspected the educational exhibit during the morning hours, began by complimenting Supt. E. E. Sheppe and his corps of teachers upon the quality of their work. It was not surpassed, he said, by that of any school of like grade on either side of the Atlantic, and he had visited and studied the workings of many schools in both America and Europe. Then followed the most masterly, logical and convincing address upon the subject of educational needs that it has been our pleasure to listen to for many a year. In the course of his remarks the speaker outlined an educational policy embracing all phases of the system from the kindergarten to the university. Two hundred days of schooling a year for every child in the commonmonwealth; school houses as comfortable as our churches, public high schools in every township, a large increase of Normal schools for the preparation of teachers, a public library in connection with every high school; and adequate provision for the State University—these are some of the planks in Prof. Claxton's educational platform. North Carolina must provide schools well-equipped and taught by trained, skilliful teachers, ten months in the year, before the stigma of illiteracy will be removed and the nations cease to point the finger of scorn and say, "Poor old North Carolina." To an unexcelled native ability must be added the training and culture of the schools and the knowledge and control of the laws of nature made possible by modern science, before our State can make the most of her undeveloped resources and take her place in the forefront of progress. Our greatest undeveloped resource is the child. Prof. Claxton is an orator as well as an educator, and his address made a profound impression upon our people. It will be long remembered and will do lasting good.

Prof. Joyner Mentioned.

In some quarters the name of Prof. J. Y. Joyner, of our State Normal and Industrial College, is being mentioned in connection with the presidency of the University of North Carolina, to succeed Dr. E. A. Alderman. He would doubtless do a splendid work at the head of this institution, and no man in North Carolina would make a more popular executive, but it is doubtful if he would consider the matter.

The Telegram happens to know that Prof. Joyner, by allowing his name to be considered, could in all probability have been elected president of an important educational institution a few years ago, but he felt it his duty to remain with the institution with which he has been so closely identified and for which he has done such good work.

In the consideration of available candidates for the presidency of our State University, it is doubtful if any college has more men better equipped for the position than the State Normal and Industrial College. President McIver, Prof. Joyner and Prof. Claxton are all eminently fitted for the duties of the office.

Speaking by Mr. Lacy.

County Chairman A. M. Scales announces that Mr. B. R. Lacy, Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, will address the citizens of Guilford county on the issues of the campaign at the following places on the dates named:

Gibsonville, Thursday night, May 17th.

High Point, Friday night, May 18th.

Greensboro, Saturday night, May 19th.

Mr. Lacy is an earnest and conscientious speaker and is always heard with pleasure. He is specially popular with the laboring classes.

Jduge Adams.

Biblical Recorder.

It affords us pleasure to say that the Republican party has chosen to present for the Governorship this year so worthy a gentleman and citizen as ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams. He is a member of Rev. Livingston Johnson's church at Greensboro, and is held in high esteem as a citizen by all who know him. In Mr. Aycock, Mr. Adams and Mr. Cyrus Thompson, the three parties have nominated their best men for Governor. The record of each of them is such that none can afford to make this a campaign of personal abuse; and each represents the best element in his party.

"At Louisburg court a woman was granted a divorce from her husband. In an hour after the close of the trial she married one of the jurors who decided to give her the divorce," says the Greenville Reflector.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.
